ABOUT NATIONAL SERVICE SCHEME

The National Service Scheme (NSS) was founded in India in 1969 with the primary objective of encouraging student participation in social service activities. It was launched on the 24th of September, 1969, with the aim of developing the personality and character of students through community engagement.

You shall have tremendous responsibility but very little authority. You shall step into people's lives and make a difference. Some will bless you. Some may curse you. You will meet all kinds of people at their best and at their worst. You will be amazed by people's capacity for love, courage and endurance. You shall see life begin and end. You shall experience resounding triumphs and devastating failures. You will cry a lot and laugh a lot. You shall know what it is to be human and be humane.

SEVEN DAYS OF INVALUABLE EXPERIENCES.

The 7-day Camp at Yusuf Meherally Centre wasn't only about having fun, but moreover, it was about Meeting new people and adapting their values and livelihood every day. It all started with us waking up Early at 6 am, exercising then practicing Yoga asanas to ensure the calmness of mind and body, we were also taught about the uses and effectiveness of each asana.

This had become a daily routine which was Healthy both physically and mentally. Additionally, Yusuf Meherally Center also made us explore soap Factories, and oil factories and learn about the production process, and more importantly it was all made with organic materials. NSS volunteers also visited the center's 'Butterfly Garden' which had medicinal Plants and beautiful flowers, also our guide Mr.Datta sir explained to us the uses and information about the plants that can cure several diseases naturally. We also had the opportunity of learning the art of Pottery, which was enjoyed by every volunteer especially since it was a souvenir made by themselves that they took with them. Volunteers also visited a school to donate stationary and impart some skills, this not, Only included fun sessions of games but also essentials like self-defense, confidence building, hygiene Sessions, etc.

While being in all these, we all realized that real happiness lies in making others happy. They were optimistic to learn self-defense sessions and to understand basic menstruation hygiene which Encouraged volunteers. Instead of the common beliefs of considering it taboo, the kids were ready to Learn and understand the concepts.

LEARNING FROM EACH OTHER

The last day of the camp was coined as our 'Cultural Day' as the hostel girls visited our campsite. They proved to be more enthusiastic and curative than our previous interactions. The girls had bloomed and offered a sense of happiness in us as the improvements and progress in them were easily visible.

They were not only more comfortable, but also confident in their spoken English as they introduced themselves in front of everyone. The sense of having helped someone even in a very small aspect of their lives gave us volunteers the satisfaction and willingness to continue doing so. In return, we were taught essential lifevalues like the concepts of 'Kindness' and 'Oneness'.

These concepts are taught to us pretty much all our lives, but that day, the girls set an example, of learning and growing together with accepting new challenges every day, for us to learn from. It was truly a give-and-take of values of self-development on both sides!

As being a part of NSS from the very start I instilled a sense of responsibility and compassion within me. Working with enthusiastic volunteers, we embarked on numerous initiatives that aimed to bring positive change to our community. Whether it was organizing cleanliness drives, conducting awareness campaigns on health and hygiene, 7day residential camp or teaching underprivileged children, each activity left an indelible mark on my heart.

-Pratibha Pandey

It felt more like a family than just, a college unit. I've always been a person who's been into social activities and NSS was the platform through, which I was able to achieve that content. I was so glad to be the part of NSS camp last year, those 7 days taught me some great unforgettable lessons, it was so much fun and I even got a great chance to improve as a person! I'm so happy to join NSS and continue it with the same spirit this year as well.

-Mitali Sarda

Every child in the neighborhood of "Banubai chi Wadi" fought for a full three-piece suit that our NSS unit students donated, but I ended up giving it to one kid who arrived late to the site because he didn't have time to get anything else, so I figured let's not leave him without anything.

-Yuvraaj Rajput

Every moment in NSS was special for me. One of my favorite parts of NSS was camp, the day we went to the boys' hostel we played cricket, and did some fun activities, when we were leaving one boy came to Viraj sir and asked him if we could stay here. Children got connected with us as well as we were connected with them.

-Murtaza Botadwala

One of the most heart-touching experiences was meeting hostel girls, they inspired me to be more adaptive through any circumstances, NSS is not only about community service it's about how you aspire to this journey.

--Khushi Solanki

Nss thought the most important thing to me was "True life is lived when tiny changes occur"

-Shreyash Gaikwad

NSS to me, is not just a unit but also a platform where I've learnt many things on a personal level. Team management, patience, how to face difficult situations, and humanity are just a few qualities from that bunch, I would like to highlight, Every event of Nss has been fun and taught me how to be selfless for the good beings of society.

-Kashish Beriwal

NSS taught me, helping someone or motivating someone is far more peaceful than having materialistic expectations.

THE TRUE SENSE OF NSS!

In the realm of service and selflessness,
Stands tall a beacon of righteousness,
With a purpose noble and true,
The NSS, a guiding light for me and you.

In villages and towns, far and near,
NSS volunteers dispel every fear,
Through health camps and education
drives,
They strive to make countless lives thrive.

They clean the streets, they plant a tree,
They nurture a bond, a sense of unity,
NSS, a force that binds us all,
Breaking barriers, standing tall.

They empower the marginalized,
Giving them hope and a voice to rise,
With compassion as their guiding star,
NSS warriors, heroes they are.

For in the spirit of NSS we find,
The power to heal, the power to bind,
Together we can shape a brighter tomorrow,
With love and service, let's conquer sorrow.

जनकल्याण

एक नागरिक मेरे पास आ कर बोला,
जनकल्याण का बीड़ा उठा के कहां को है डोला?
मैंने कहा एनएसएस के साथ आया हूं।
लोगो के लिए कुछ खास लाया हूं।
तुम आओ तो निस्वार्थ भाव से आना।
यादों की पोटली अपने संग ले जाना।
कुछ मुस्कुराहटें, कुछ प्रेम का संगम होगा।
कुछ नेकी, कुछ एकी का मिश्रण होगा।
शिष्टाचार को श्रेष्ठ माना जाता है।
जीवन में एक नया पड़ाव आता है।
खुद से पहले लोगो की बात आती है।
सात दिन का शिविर खुद को करीब लाती है।
लोगो के प्रति हमारा कर्तव्य समझती है।
अब बात यहां आ कर अटक जाती है।

कितना किया जाए?

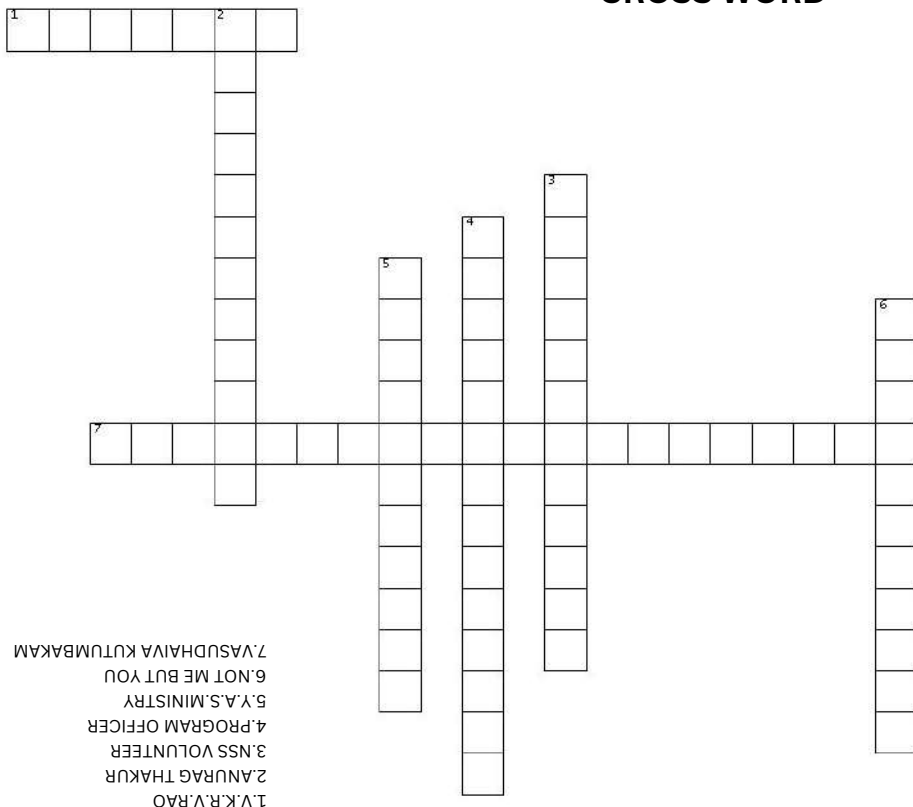

मैंने जवाब दिया बस उतना,
जितना आम आदमी और तुम में फर्क दिख पाए।
