4.1.1. The Institution has adequate infrastructure and physical facilities for teaching learning. viz., classrooms, laboratories, computing equipment etc.

The Deviprasad Goenka Management College of Media Studies (DGMC) offers a state-of-the-art campus that enhances student learning and engagement. It features 10 ICT-enabled classrooms, accommodating 30-60 students, equipped with computers, projectors, screens, and sound systems. The library houses 3,867 books and subscribes to 50 journals, providing seating for 40 students and access to photocopying, printing, and an e-library. The shooting studio is designed with advanced lighting and camera systems for VFX production, while the sound lab specializes in mixing and contemporary music production, supported by a fully-equipped production control room. The iMac lab offers 22 multimedia workstations and 14 Windows workstations dedicated to students for creative projects apart from Faculty Computer systems.

Additional facilities include a Mentor's Corner, NSS room, girls' common room, and multiple conference and meeting rooms. The seminar hall spans 1,446.24 sq. ft., seats 90 people, and features soundproofing, a multimedia projector, amplifier, and sound system. The air-conditioned campus is fully Wi-Fi enabled and thoughtfully designed to ensure accessibility for all students. These comprehensive facilities support hands-on learning and foster creativity, ensuring that students at DGMC receive both theoretical knowledge and practical experience in a cutting-edge environment.
