

STUDENT COUNCIL COMMITTEE

The Student Council at Devi Prasad Goenka Management College of Media Studies, following Mumbai University guidelines, serves as a student body representing their interests and ensuring smooth communication between students and college authorities. It organizes a variety of events like cultural festivals, sports activities, and guest lectures, fostering engagement, leadership, and teamwork. The Council promotes leadership development by providing students opportunities in roles like President or Secretary, helping them grow professionally. It also leads social responsibility initiatives such as charity drives, sustainability projects, and awareness campaigns on issues like mental health and gender equality.

The Council coordinates with faculty to organize academic events and support peer learning, ensuring the holistic development of students. It also helps freshers adjust to college life through orientation programs. Additionally, the Council plays a key role in student welfare by addressing grievances and conflicts. It often collaborates with other colleges for inter-college events, promoting networking and exposure. Overall, the Student Council strengthens student representation, encourages personal growth, and enhances the college experience, aligning with both institutional and university-level objectives.
