PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Ashok M. Saraf
President - RSET

"It is my pleasure to introduce the Deviprasad Goenka Management College for Media Studies (DGMC) under the banner of RSET. The Rajasthani Sammelan Education Trust has been pioneering and innovating in the field of education for more than 70 years and DGMC adds to that spirit of dedication and innovation.

DGMC is located in Mumbai which is the financial and the media capital of the country and hence is positioned perfectly to impart to students a unique blend of theory, practical and industry exposure. With the understanding that media today is more omnipresent than ever and more influential than ever, DGMC encourages its students to explore not just traditional but newer forms of media constantly. Keeping an eye on the global trends, DGMC has made sure that the training and exposure given to students is truly international in its approach.

The hi-tech infrastructure enables an ambience for inquiry, research and learning which stimulates a 360 degree engagement with media and provides an altogether new landscape for media education.

DGMC has managed to keep striving for excellence not just in academics but also outside it. The student festivals, national and international conferences, constant engagement with media experts are some of the events where this drive can be witnessed. It has given me great joy to see DGMC pushing its limits irrespective of the hardships that have surrounded higher education in recent years.

DGMC as an institute has made a space for itself within the RSET family and with its continued dedication, will and spirit, it will continue making me and the entire RSET proud of its growth. I wish DGMC and its entire team of faculty, staff and students all the best for their future endeavours."

Vidya Dadaati Vinayam, Vinayad Tati Patrataam, Patratvad Dhanamapanti Dhanadarma Tataha Sukham.

Knowledge makes one humble, humility begets worthiness, worthiness create wealth and enrichment, enrichment leads to right conduct, conduct brings contentment.

As the Principal of this prestigious college in the city of Mumbai, I feel this Shloka aptly conveys what I firmly believe every human being should strive to achieve and the path to achieve the same is only through education.

Education widens the narrow confines of the young eager minds and liberates it from all the bias! An inquisitive mind is a gift to be cherished and nurtured and we at DGMC aspire to make the ordinary come alive, continue to inspire, empower and challenge our students through our holistic approach to imparting education.

The disruption in the education sector because of COVID-19 has inadvertently forced us into actively exploring alternative methods for content delivery, student evaluation, and effective engagement of human resources. All indications point to a future in which we have to by modify our behaviour, and our age old practices.

These trying times have taught us not only to educate the young minds but also to educate their hearts.

I am proud to say that DGMC is an amalgamation of competent teachers, state-of-the-art infrastructure, supportive environment to provide a perfect balance of academics, artistic, sports and social opportunities.

The excitement and fervor created by the intercollegiate festivals Media ICE Age and Cinevoyage, has put this college on the map both within India and internationally too.

The teacher driven initiative of the Training and Placement Cell introduced for our students speaks volumes of the commitment the faculties at DGMC have not only towards the college but also towards the students.

I appreciate every student who shared the joy of participation in co-curricular and extra curricular activities along with their commitment to curriculum. That little extra we do, is the icing on the cake. Do more than belong- participate, do more than care- help, do more than believe- practice, do more than be fair- be kind, do more than forgive- forget and do more than dream- work. The activities organised by the Literati Club, the Film Club, the Rotaract Club and all the other clubs and associations of the college have helped and empowered the students to develop self-esteem, self-awareness and self-confidence.

Our student population is multicultural and multilingual, hence we teach our students the importance of tolerance and respect for each others' language and culture.

An institution is known by its people and I wish to thank my excellent teaching and non-teaching colleagues for their integrity, their hard work and sincerity. They have worked cohesively with me on any new idea that I floated. I also thank the Management for their support and guidance, parents for their trust, alumni for their involvement and above all my students for their love for this college.

People at the helm may change but this college, which I call the temple of Goddess Saraswati will always be there for us -- a pillar of strength and successio.

MESSAGE FROM THE EDITOR'S COUNCIL

STUDENTS' EDITORIAL TEAM

Getting To Know The Warrior Within

A lot of times life feels like a race with some or the other hurdle always keeping us from reaching our goal. In fact life is indeed a constant battle, a struggle to keep striking a balance in order to keep moving forward. It is at this point that it's of utmost importance to be present in the moment and live life to its fullest because we don't know what lies ahead. However, there comes a point in every individual's life where everything becomes mechanical and mundane. You do the things that you do, not out of consciousness but mere habit. That's when you start missing out on the little joys of life. There are also moments of failure and weakness where one feels so lost and helpless that grief seems to be an endless entity. You lose people you rely on over the course of time and you acknowledge their absence in the times of crisis. But that is when the warrior within you awakens. Think of that very hard breakup that you never thought you'd be able to overcome. The loss of a loved one that you thought you'll never be able to make peace with. The betrayal from a friend that you weren't sure you'd survive. That lost opportunity that you thought would be the end of the world. And now look where you are today. How many people do you think were with you constantly through this journey? No one more than your own self.

The answers we seek in far off places often end up being right there within us all this while. But it's important to be lost too, in order to find yourself. As humans it is our natural instinct to fight for survival. We all have come across the saying, "God helps those who help themselves." When it comes to seeking support, it's still our responsibility to have enough courage to ask for help and find ourselves worthy of receiving it too. When you are let down by everyone else and don't know who to look for, try looking within. Your gut feeling is never wrong. The voice within you is trying to guide you and look out for you. When you are in tune with yourself not only do you treat yourself right but also teach others how they should treat you, in the process. When you neglect your own needs to please others, they treat you the same way because you show them that you come second. For the world to believe in you, you must believe in yourself first and let your hard work, sincerity and potential speak for itself. So trust your warrior within and keep pushing yourself to be the best possible version of yourself.

STUDENT COUNCIL PRESIDENT

Ruben Roy (MA FTNMP)

“You do not receive responsibility, unless you prove yourself worth it”

In the couple years of my time in Deviprasad Goenka Management College of Media Studies, I have met beautiful, talented people starting from the first years of bachelors to the seniors in masters, every one of them have an inspiring thought to be a part of this college. Coming to the final year of my masters and being the senior most student I was offered to take up the responsibility to be the President of the Student Council.

The council members wouldn't have been the way it is if it was not for the one who believed in us, our very own Principal Ma'am, Dr. Amee Vora. She appointed the most elite members in the council because she believed in us so that we make the students believe just as we do and ensure to take up the responsibilities and ensure all success in the activities and events we have conducted.

It is the student council who plans and makes everything possible for the student community however, it is the duty of the council coordinator to ensures that every plan that the council makes and provided are systematically gone through and approved and that wouldn't have been possible without the help and support of Council coordinator Mr. Saurabh Deshpande along with the support of our faculties, teaching and non-teaching who guided us in all times. It is the President of the student.

council who is supposed to be the one to inspire the students but for me it was the other way around. I have observed a lot during my first year in masters and it truly made me admire this College for what it is and being the premier Media College in India, it surely does stand the reputation it holds and being part of this Institute has only made me feel proud of myself and the Council.

However, no person can work alone and for me I had the pleasure of working with an amazing team. A team who has known the college in its thick and thin and knows what has to be done in a systematic way. The Secretary (Aaliya Khan) and Joint Secretary (Brandon Pereira), they have given me the guidance and without them it would've been very difficult, and along with that the rest of the dedicated council members have been proactive in every call that we make and proven to everyone their capability of handling responsibilities that they have taken up dedicatedly.

In my tenure as the president of the student council, if there's one thing that i've learnt is that success is not final, failure is not fatal, in the end it's the courage to continue that counts.

It has been my privilege to be allowed to head this amazing team of bright and lively students. Together with the teaching and non-teaching staff we've made countless memories. Ones that I'll cherish for long after I have graduated.

THE VALEDICTORIAN

Taiyaba Shaikh (MACJ)

Smt. Shivdevi Deviprasad Goenka Trophy for the Receiver of Best Student 2021-22

To say that receiving this honor feels like a dream is an understatement even then, it is like a dream that leaves a smile on your face. I remember walking into the halls of DGMC seven years ago to confirm my admission into the junior college and I haven't left since. These last seven years have been nothing less than magical for me. I wasn't always a bright student or active in extracurricular activities but the faculties at DGMC have truly shaped me into the person I am today.

"A good teacher is like a candle – it consumes itself to light the way for others." -Mustafa Kemal Atatürk

And I believe that our principal ma'am, Dr. Amee Vora is someone who truly justifies this quote. She is the personification of the fiery flame of the candle that flickers brightly to give us light in the darkness and guide us to the path of glory. I remember when she had just become a part of this institution and I was a third-year student – standing at the very back, with low self-esteem, she was the one who told me 'you can do it Taiyaba. You can learn if you don't know and you must grow'. Let me tell you all, she didn't know me much back then but she still showed confidence in me. As a teacher, as a guru she always strives to do the best for her students. She entrusted me with responsibilities when no one else recognized me and it is not an exaggeration to say that she is the reason why I am standing here today. If she hadn't pulled me forward, I would just be an average student today.

Ma'am, I never got the chance to say this to you, but I honestly feel you are amazing. I have learnt a lot from you. Thank you for everything.

Whenever someone asks me what is the best feature of your college, the first word that comes out of my mouth are the 'Faculties' of DGMC, both teaching and non-teaching. My faculties Saurabh sir who has always told me to believe in my worth and the position I was entrusted with, Rubina ma'am who encourages me to keep improving myself, Selvi Ma'am who always feels proud for me, Shalu sir who taught me the meaning of leadership, Anchal ma'am, Kanchan ma'am, Vidula mam and Partha sir.

Our non-teaching faculties like Shravani ma'am, Sarika ma'am, Sunita ma'am, Devendra sir, Suchit sir and our registrar Baing sir who guided me when I volunteered to help during the admission season and also the visiting faculties who have taught me over the years and have worked so hard on me; I want to thank all of you from the bottom of my heart. I will remember and cherish your teachings for a lifetime. I would also like to thank my family, my classmates and friends who have helped me to become a better person and have shared their knowledge with me. I am deeply grateful to you all. I want to extend my thanks even to the support staff who always helps us out whenever needed.

Lastly, I would like to say that DGMC has enchanted a part of my soul and this spell is so alluring and sweet that I never want it to lift off of me. I promise on the honor that everyone has given me today that I will continue to strive to be a better version of myself.

Graduation: A new beginning

Graduating from DGMC has been one of the most magical journeys I have walked through. Life changed, things evolved... From spending hours in the classroom to spending hours in Google classroom, everything changed. Lockdown didn't shut the doors, instead opened new ones to show the wonders we could do even when the circumstances limit us. Finding ourselves brought us such a long way that the day arose when we looked at ourselves wearing those black gown, red stoles and the mortar board hat holding the degree with all pride, hearing all the motivational words by our mentors with smiles, hugs and lots of happiness all being captured in our memory cards for lifetime.

Because as quoted by Orrin Hatch and said by our Principal ma'am that, "Graduation is not the end; it's the beginning..." Yes! Indeed.. Because it's the world that's waiting for us now...

International Conference: Alternative Narratives: Communicating through the Power of Visuals

Lastly, the panel on films was star studded with participation from Ms. Renuka Shahane, Ms. Monisha Advani, Ms. Vibha Singh and Ms. Anu Singh Choudhary as the moderator followed by a special discussion with Mr. Soumya Joshi, writer of the National Award winning Gujarati film Hellaro. The conference was indeed a success with participation from across the country and riveting discussions. The celebration of the feminine expression and the formidable strength of women artists came through to the audience with a force of nature, in a way justifying reva as the inspiration behind the conference.

Media I.C.E (Information, Communication, and Entertainment) Age and Cinevoyage, 2022 redefined the contours of what is usually meant by “celebration”. Mentored and guided by the Principal of Deviprasad Goenka Management College of Media Studies, Dr. Amee Vora, the team got its wheels rolling for the festival in its redefined form as early as September 2021.

This year, the hi ther to famous annual inter collegiate festivals went international! Media I.C.E Age, 2022 was conceptualized on the lines of lighting up hopes, aspirations and dreams in people’s lives. The festival could not have had a better theme than the “Legend of the Phoenix - A Dream You Seek”, denoting resurrection in the face of precarity and despair. The tagline “Ever Ascending” was another silver ray added to the dazzling golden hues spread by the fest.

The festival brought within its fold a number of fascinating events, panels, workshops and conclaves spread across four full days starting from morning and continuing till late evening. from 23rd to 26th February 2022. The festivals attracted wide participation from colleges across India and individuals across the world. One of the major highlights of this festival is the CSR initiative 2022 ‘The Environment Conscious Section’.

Cinevoyage had received a whopping 1400 entries from 100 plus countries. Two panels related to films enjoyed overwhelming applause from the audience. One of the panels discussed the challenges that lay hidden in regional film making and the other panel discussed the nuances involved in making international movies depicting regional cultures.

The festivals included in their program list, workshops, panels, conclaves, events and activities that purely spoke about Environment. The Media I.C.E Age and Cinevoyage team had partnered with the ISHA Foundation for the festival's most popular series of sessions titled Change makers.

Over and above what was delivered, the festival team tried to keep their green initiative alive throughout all the four days by gifting plants to the HOIs of other colleges and Institutes who were invited for the fest. Besides, green saplings were gifted to all the winners, juries, faculties and to the core team, multiplying the joy of their achievement manifold times.

“If a million people see my movie, I hope they see a million different movies” - Quentin Tarantino

Did you know the film speaks a lot of things to you, there is some message for sure in each and every movie and we just need to grab a bucket of popcorn and a lot of attention to hear them. Keeping the same thing in mind “FILM CLUB of DGMC” tried to present some beautiful movies containing ecstatic and inspirational messages in them. With the help of a screening team, guest team, research team and social media team, the film club pioneered “BIOSCOPE”- SCREENING SATURDAY. Every Saturday we held a screening of unique yet amazing movies, movies from which you can gain a bunch of knowledge. We screened movies like Harishchandrachari factory, Where is the Friend's home, Vertigo, Charulata etc. On the account of Gandhi Jayanti we screened an inspirational documentary named Mahatma Gandhi- Dying For Freedom which showed how baapu led all of us towards freedom. A picture is not worth watching till we try to make one, while thinking the same film club organized a Ganpati short film making competition with an elementary theme “I Have a Dream’. Understanding filmmaking, behind the scenes of a film is much more important than the whole film sometimes and this is what the film club of DGMC is trying to show. We hope to watch more film screenings next year with more audience in it.

Nasha Mukht Bharat Abhiyaan

Date: 16-18th August 2021

“Nasha Mukht Bharat Abhiyaan” was addressed in a series of acts, namely – Quiz, Skit, Short-film and Podcast. The objective of the Quiz was to test the knowledge amongst the general public about drug abuse. Dozens of people viewed & attempted the quiz on DGMCs social media handles, and the overall feedback was encouraging.

The Skit aptly titled “Ecstasy” is not just a state of the mind, but also a mood altering drug, and the two are interconnected. Our play talks about the emotion of love, and how relationships get ruined by the entry of this drug in the lives of the play’s protagonists. The play underlines the value of understanding one’s confusion, and adapting to one’s demons.

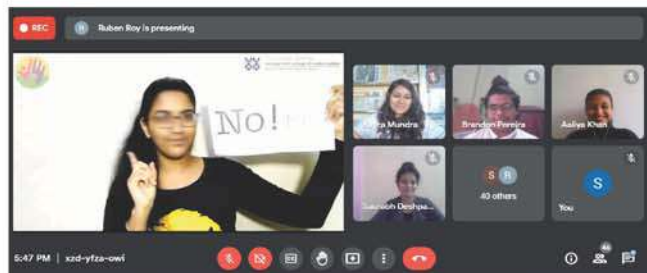

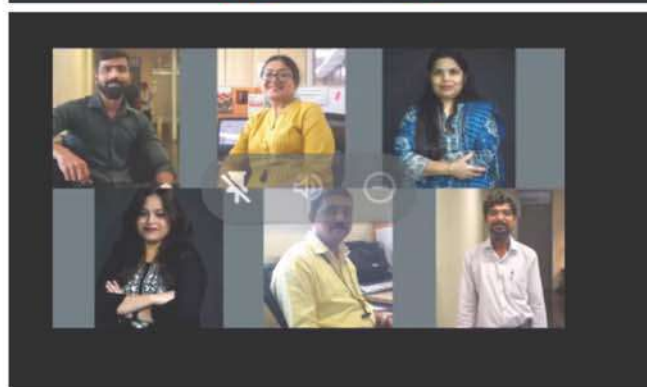

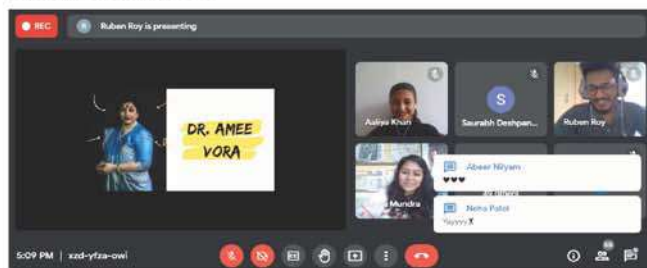

The Short-film titled “The Walk” explains the journey of the protagonist’s mind in this fast paced metropolitan city and how he engages in drugs to deal with his anxiety.

The film has a social message for people of all walks – old, young, rich or poor. Suicide related statistics are displayed at the end of the film.

Continuing with the campaign a Podcast with guest speaker Mr. Kiran Gurunath Chipkar, a Founder of Nirved Foundation was organized. Mr Kiran Chipkar was invited to the DGMC studio for an awareness-generating interview on the ill-effects of addiction. काल आजीसोबत गप्पा मारत असतांना सहजच सुमीन विचारल आज्जी सांग ना तू ह्या महिलादिनाला काय करणार आहेस? आजी म्हणाली... कसल मेल ते महिलादिनाच वारं...तिलाच ओरबडून घेतलय सारं...अग सुमी तुम्हा अलीकडच्या मुलींना, बायकांना काहीतरी सादरीकरणाच निमित्त लागत ...आणि मग मोठे राजकारणी, मोठ्या संस्था किंवा घरातील इतर मंडळी तेवढ्या दिवसापुरती काय ते साजर करतात करायच म्हणून आणि पुन्हा तो येरे माझ्या मागल्या. सुमी आजीकडे बघतच राहिली..आजी म्हणाली अग खर तेच सांगते...परवा आपल्या कामवालीला तिच्या नवऱ्यान मारल ..का तर ती कामावर गेली फक्त कामावर गेली म्हणून नाही तर तिला दिवस गेलेत आणि पोटात मुलीचा गर्भ आहे त्याला मुलगी नको मुलगाच हवा असा त्या नराधमाचा हट्ट आणि त्या हट्टापायी तिच्या या आधीच्या दोन बाळींचा जीव घेतला हो मेल्याने....एवढ सोप एखाद मशीन असल्यासारख तिच बाईपण उपभोगायच आणि नंतर तिला मुलगी होणार की मुलगा ह्या शहानिसेवर त्या इवल्या जीवाला जन्माआधीच मारायचकसला हा भेकडपणा? कुठली ही मर्दानगी? आजी जेपण बोलली ते सुमीन ऐकल्यावर सुमीला वाईट वाटल...हे सगळ समजण्याएवढी ती मोठी म्हणजेच एकोणाविस वर्षाची होती. सुमीन आपल्या मैत्रीणी गोळा केल्या आणि सगळी फौज नजिकच्या मॅटर्निटी हॉस्पिटलमधे गेली. तेथे डॉक्टरांना भेटल्या ..आपसात चर्चा झाली आणि डॉक्टर म्हणाल्या ठरलतर...भेटुया ८ मार्च महिलादिनाला ..सुमीन डॉक्टराण बाईंशी हात मिळवला आणि फौज घेऊन बाहेर पडली.

महिलादिनाचा छोटेखानी कार्यक्रम सोसायटीच्या हॉलमधे करायच ठरवल होत सुमी आणि तिच्या मैत्रीणिनी...मग काय मोजक्याच सामानात पण नीटनेटकी सजावट केली. कार्यक्रमासाठी परिसरातील सर्व महिलांना आमंत्रण दिले होते. व्यासपीठही सुंदर सजवून त्यावर सुमीची आजी आणि डॉक्टराण बाई अशा दोघी बसायची व्यवस्था केलेली. कार्यक्रम सुरू होतेवेळी उपस्थित सर्व महिलांना गजरा आणि हातरूमाल भेट स्वरूप देऊन आणि अल्पोपहाराचा आनंद देण्यात आला. व्यासपीठावर आमंत्रित डॉक्टराण बाईंनी औपचारिक भाषण देऊन स्त्रियांनी कसा आहार घ्यावा काय टाळावे वेगरे सांगितले. त्यानंतर शेवटी त्यांनी एक घोषणा केली की ज्या स्त्रीला पहिली मुलगी होईल (कुठल्याही तपासाविना) तिची प्रसुती हॉस्पिटलमधे मोफत केली जाईल. हे ऐकताच आजीच्या डोळ्यात आनंदाची चमक आली. आजीनी कौतुकाने सुमीकडे पाहिले आणि आजीलापण बोलायची ईच्छा झाली. आजीने सुमी व तिच्या मैत्रीणींचे, डॉक्टराण बाईंचे कौतुक केलेच पण पुढील प्रत्येक वर्षी अशा महिलांचे सबलीकरण करणाऱ्या नवीन उपक्रमांची सुरवात महिलादिनाला होईल आणि ते अमलात आणणाऱ्या स्त्रियांचा यथोचित सन्मान केला जाईल असेही सांगितले. हे सगळे सोसायटी ऑफिसमधे बसणाऱ्या मंडळीने ऐकले आणि या कामात आम्ही पण आनंदाने योगदान देऊ असे आश्वासनही दिले.

घरी आल्यावर आजीनी सुमीची नजर उतरवली आणि म्हणाली अशाच मुली घरोघरी जन्माला येवो. सुमी खुदकन हसली आणि गुणगुणत तिच्या खोलीत निघून गेली...गाण होत दिल है छोटासा...छोटीसी आशा...मस्तीभरे मन की भोली सी आशा...चांद तारो को छूनेकी आशा...आसमानो में उडने की आशा.

Readers fragrance

In the year 2020, the contagious epidemic Corona came to India from all over the world and everything stopped. Teaching and rehearsals, various educational and cultural programs throughout the year were also conducted online, and most importantly, examinations were also conducted online. Technology had never been necessary to do everything but now there was no option without it. Awareness of the use of media available in various forms, adopting the ability to analyze, evaluate and create it has become essential for communities at all levels of society. During this whole time, it took a lot for the library to remain active with a focus on keeping the library service working. At that time, the readership in the library was completely paralyzed. The daily routine before the epidemic and the happiness, energy, satisfaction that would come from it was lost somewhere.

Eventually, strict closure rules were relaxed and some schools and colleges were started online for students but also offline for teachers and non-teaching staff. The fragrance of the books that will be handed over to the readers and the experience of the same fragrance again after the return of the book was a rarity. However, with the opening of campuses. The college campus was packed with students. After all, the use of both masks and sanitizers was mandatory, allowing readers to read and write in the library. The splendor of books and their fragrance was rekindled, and it was reassuring to know that the five laws of the library science for the books of Dr. Ranganathan, the father of library science, are being repeatedly proved forever.

Body Stereotyping: The complicated truth about social media's influence.

Body stereotyping can be defined as a way of generalizing the way specific types of individuals or groups are intended to behave and look.

Mumbai being a fashion and Bollywood hub, the people here are highly influenced by a certain lifestyle and body image. The need for an appealing body image is so intense in all the college-going students, having a perfect body or looking a certain way makes them feel like they fit in the society and due to this body stereotyping is on the rise in our society. Due to body stereotyping, people have started perceiving every individual in the wrong way, because you aren't considered to be who you are but more of how you look like.

Almost everybody is judged today on the parameters of height, weight, body type, body structure and what not. This concept of body stereotyping has seeped so deep in our minds that we all come across it every now and then but don't realize it.

Much has been made over the years about how mainstream media presents unrealistic beauty standards in the form of photoshopped celebrities or stick-thin fashion models. Now that influences fill up our feeds, it's easy to imagine that social media too, is all bad when it comes to body image. But the reality is nuanced and there may be ways to curate our social media feed to make one feel happier in your own skin, or- at least, stop feeling worse.

Social media platforms not only expose young girls to certain beauty standards but also propel them to follow the cultural ideals of womanhood. An emerging research is evidence of such social networking behavior which is contributing to the rise of Body Dysmorphic Disorders. Social Media hence can be a vulnerable and dangerous body image and shaming environment. New Research is monitoring the effects of use of Social Media such as FaceBook, Instagram etc. The research revealed that people frequently using these platforms have a body image problem. Social Media as a platform is ultimately toxic for a body image and hence it cultivates a risk of being the target of someone else's body shaming comments. Its emphasis on high visualizations, creative interaction and appealing appearances as a chief point to success.

No doubt the internalization of body shaming and weight bias in social media platforms hangs heavy on the minds of women, especially girls and teenagers, living in a society where their bodies define who they are.

There is a dire need for Colleges and Universities to start with attempts for body-positive initiatives. An awareness program to focus on one's identity to not be swayed by social conventions and how self-esteem should never be dependent on one's appearance, is the key to instill the fact that character, values and skills, are the attributes that one must seek to acquire or develop.

Hybrid Learning - The "In" Thing

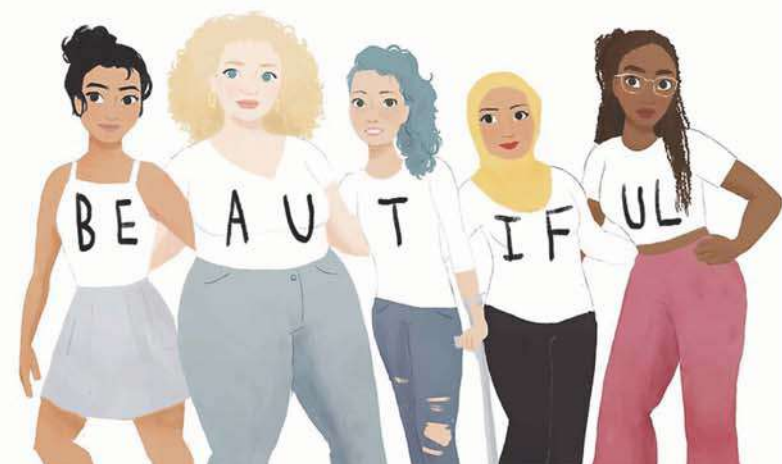

A new addition has been made to the already rich English vocabulary - "Hybrid Learning" aka "Blended Learning" - a methodology that combines online teaching resources with the traditional teaching-learning methods. This new phrase has appeared because this new concept has appeared. Concepts precede terms.

This reveals how an exciting future of opportunities awaits the domain of academia, as more and more people acquire not only basic literacy, but also enter the spaces of higher education in even greater numbers. With digital penetration happening like never before, it is only a matter of time before the country gets sufficiently digitized to cater to an emerging audience.

Now the expectations of this emerging audience would be different as they would be conditioned in a technological environment that differs substantially from the one preceding it. The upcoming learning environments are expected to be even more student-friendly than the current one, considering how the future students (and their parents) are likely to be more comfortable in a virtual-actual teaching-learning space where the student can learn online as well as off-line, as the need be, and deriving the best of both the worlds.

It is the teaching community that must get intimately acquainted with this mixed-modal system, cultivating the skills required to teach in a transitional system and hand over the reins to the future teachers, who in all probability will depend on the mixed-modal foundations that this generation of teachers will eventually build. The ongoing digital revolution will unquestionably build up a technologically driven academic infrastructure involving the creation & delivery of textual-audio-visual content incorporating a global network.

The contemporary student will be obliged to take advantage of this emerging architecture as institutions add on to this evolving academic landscape. Finally, the government too, in its wisdom, will be guided by the situation to set up a futuristic educational policy that complements the existing policy, thus creating a win-win situation for all stakeholders.

A New Pandora!

The pandemic has been a difficult time for all of humanity. But more so for the youth. The youth has always struggled with physiological, social, mental, emotional and financial changes. The pandemic has increased the intensity of all these challenges.

According to WHO, mental health issues amongst the youth is in the range of 16%. Most of these mental health issues are not even identified, so remain undetected and untreated. These issues are thought of as a passing phase and it is just a matter of time. If not addressed in time, these manageable conditions can become serious concerns in the later part of life.

The youth in their exploration try to understand these issues, but as they are not used to sharing, especially with their parents, they find themselves isolated. The challenges faced by the youth are many fold. Some of these challenges are.

Identity Conflict

The youth is always in a conflict between the image they have and the image they want to create. Moreover there is also a clash between the self-image and the social image. The youth is always striving to be what they think they want to be. This at times has led to an identity crisis and the youth continues with an image that he doesn't want but because of circumstances has got it.

The pandemic has increased this conflict to another level altogether. In normal circumstances the youth had a social image which they would have liked or got accustomed to. The pandemic has forced the youth to stay at home where the gratification of this social image is not happening.

The image of the youth at home is fulfilling partially or is clashing with the social image. This is leading to an identity crisis which earlier wasn't there. The nuclear family setup further has alienated them. Both the parents are busy with their professional life and don't have time to acknowledge the changes occurring in their child's lives

Technological Advancements

As digital natives, this generation has always has easy access to technology. Because of this access, the impact of screen time spent on various devices has been more than what is advisable. Dr. Naman in a study has found that excessive screen time has negative impact on social and mental health of the adolescents. The fear of getting addicted to social media is no longer just a thought, it has become very much a reality.

The pandemic has led to an increase in the screen time by almost 30%. In a survey conducted, we found that on an average the young generation was spending more than 10 hours on various devices. The probability of addiction during the pandemic has increased many fold.

Changes in the Sleep patterns

Binge watching on OTT, time spent on Social media has led to a change in the sleep patterns and even sleep deprivation amongst the youth. Most of the individuals go to sleep with the mobile phones or other devices besides them. This has been a major cause in sleep disturbances. Lack of sleep or restless sleep or not getting the required 8 hours of sleep can lead to sleep disorders. During the pandemic we found through the survey that binge watching during the night had increased. The sleep patterns are changing leading to restlessness and aggression. We found that students were citing instances of being physical and mentally tired but not able to sleep. The fatigue is piling on with online lectures during the day and binge watching during the nights.

Increase in anxiety and depression

The youth is as it is a stage of life development with lot of anxiety. Trying to adjust to so many life situations can be taxing and can take a toll on the mental health. According to the WHO, depression is one of the major concerns amongst the youth today. Mental health organizations are reporting more and more cases of anxiety disorders, extreme isolation and depression amongst the younger generation.

The pandemic has increased these issues. Being isolated at home, the youth is not getting the outlet or the ventilation for their emotions. Neither is it getting channelized in a manner that helps in coping. Apart from that the fear of losing the loved ones is adding to the already increased anxieties.

The challenges faced by the youth are immense. It is not that coping mechanisms or help is not there. The only thing is that an effort has to be made by the parents and the individual to acknowledge that there is a problem. This first step is the most difficult and the most crucial. A lot needs to be done in the field of mental health. But acceptance will go a long way in resolving these issues.

Review of the book “Improving Your Company Image”- Creating a positive first Impression by ‘Sylvia Ann Blishak’ - Akansha Pandey SYBAMMC

Books are considered as ‘tools for communication between two minds’. This amazing book ‘Improving Your Company Image’ by Sylvia Ann Blishak is the perfect pick for you if you are keen on enhancing your company image and developing your identity in the market.

Besides illustrating how a brand name or image can make or break an organization’s future, this book leaves you with practical step by step guidance on how to make an ideal image of a company in the market and society. It alerts you about how a neglected or poorly communicated and outdated image could burn all bridges by confusing people who interact with you and your brand.

What attracted me, as a reader, was the fact that the author does not jump to conclusions. Rather, the book unveils to you the steps that invalidate or validate a particular brand approach. The book is filled with numerous examples and multiple case studies which makes it easier for the reader to connect and comprehend.

The writing style adopted by the author gives you the vibe of an interesting two way communication happening throughout. This book is waiting at Smt. Prabhadevi Banwarilal Saraf library, Knowledge Home on the fifth floor of Deviprasad Goenka Management College of Media Studies, for you to read and make the most of it.

रिभाषा?
 कही न कही,
 मुझको भी हैं,
 जिन्दगी जीने की आशा!
 ऊंचा उड़ने की,
 मुझको भी हैं आकांक्षा!
 आसमां पर किसी का जोर नहीं,
 पंख पसारने की,
 मुझको भी हैं अभिलाषा!
 मगर क्यों ये जहां मुझपर,
 लाचार होने की मोहर लगाता हैं?
 क्यों ये जहां मुझको,
 कमजोर बताता हैं?
 माना कि, मैं इस समाज में जचती नहीं,
 मगर हूं तो इंसान ही ना!
 इसमें मेरा क्या कसूर,
 कि मैं तुम जैसी नहीं।।
 शायद यहीं हैं दुनिया का दस्तूर, कि हमें अपना तुम्हारी फितरत नहीं।।
 कुदरत का हमेशा से ही,
 ये अन्याय रहा है,
 हमें ज़माने से कमजोर बताकर,
 जलील करने सा बर्ताव रहा है।।
 क्यों कोई समझता नहीं,
 कि मुझमें भी,
 जी भर के जीने की हैं अभिलाषा!
 प्यार करने और प्यार पाने की,
 मुझमें भी हैं आकांक्षा!
 पहले अंग्रेजों की,
 अब बड़े साहब की,
 गुलामी करते करते थक चुकी हूं।।
 हां, थक चुकी हूं!
 यूँही कैद में जी-जी कर,
 ज़रा सा आज़ाद होकर ही,
 लेकिन मुझको भी हैं,
 जिंदगी जीने की आशा!

और अगर मैं ये भी ना पा सकूं,
 तो तू ही बता दे,
 "ए कैद सी जिंदगी मेरी"
 क्या हैं मेरी परिभाषा?

तुम ...,
 तुम्हें क्या बताऊँ .. की तुम मेरे लिए क्या हो,
 तुम उस बारिश की पहली बूंद की तरह हो,
 जिसका इंतज़ार ये बंजर जमीन न जाने कब से कर रही है।
 तुम उस चाँद की तरह हो,
 जो घनी अंधेरी रात को भी खूबसूरत बना देता है।
 तू उस एहसास की तरह हो,
 जो इस बेचैन दिल को सुकून दे जाती है।
 तुम उस फूल की तरह हो,
 जो वीरान बगिया को भी महका देती है।
 तुम ... तुम उस कविता की तरह हो,
 जिसको सुनते ही मेरी रूह को राहत सी मिल जाती है।

Kya kabhi apne bhi ye sab feel kia hai?

Kabhi aisa hua hai raat ke 2 baje neend aayi, subah 5 baje ka alarm ho, 5min snooze kia aur 8 baje jagna hua

Aapki phone ki ringtone baje, aur isse pehle ke koi aur usse uthaye, tezi se uske taraf bhagna hua

Itna bada msg type karke, reply 'Hm' aur 'Kk' mei pakar, kya kabhi aapko bhi gussa aaya hai?

Aadhar card par apni hi photo dekhkar, kya kabhi apne bhi wo irritating sa face banaya hai?

Facebook aur insta par kisiko stalk karne ka aur WhatsApp par kisiko block karne ka maza, kya kabhi apne bhi liya hai. Kya kabhi aapne bhi yeh sab feel kiya hai?

Kabhi aisa hua hai bachpan mein your parents asked you why did u go there aur aap kehte ho coz mere dost bhi wahi gaye the, bcoz mere best frnd ne ye sab kiya isliye meine bhi ye sab kiya tha.

And ur parents are like 'agar wo kue mei kudenge toh tum bhi kudoge kya? Aree, agar woh talab mei dubki marenge toh tum bhi maaroge kya?'

Waise aap mall mein shopping karne jate ho ya selfies kheech ke kaam chalate ho?

Class bunk karke apne dosto ke saath ghumne jane ka wo special moment kya apne bhi jiya hai, kya apne bhi kabhi ye sab feel kia hai?

Bachpan mein kabhi aisa hua hai ke aap bimar hue ho and ur mother is like aur 'Khaao maide wale Pizza-Burger. You never eat a healthy sabzi'.

Paper mein marks kam aane par, father gives a lecture, 'padhai bilkul mat Karo, aur khelo pub-g'.

Kabhi aisa hua hai that ur Frnd told you that they know a secret about you par wo secret kya hai, wo soch-soch kar aapki raat nai kaatti

Motivational video 2 din dekh kar wapas pehle jaisa ban jane ka,

5 dosto ki selfie mei sirf aap hi ka face kharab aane ka,

Rishtedaro ko call karke 'aree aap toh yaad hi nahi karte' ye pact line sunane ka

500 rupees ki cheez 350 mei lane ka,

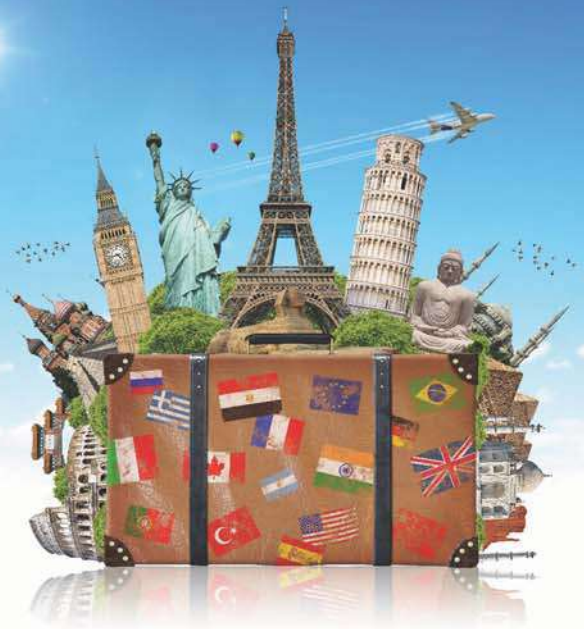

Apna khana chod, doston ka khana khane ka maza,

Kya apne bhi kabhi Jiya hai?

Kya apne bhi kabhi ye sab feel kiya hai?

I am living in a country where we export lots of Masalas and jaggery
But I am also living in a country
Where poor people sleep hungry

I am living in a country
Where girls are ghar ki Laxmi in a sense
But I am also living in a country where
Rape and domestic violence happens

I am living in a country where
Girls and boys are equal
But I am also living in a country where
We say "U r a boy don't cry like a girl"

I am living in a country where guests are compared to God
But I'm also living in a country where
That same guest suffer through fraud

I am living in a country where unity takes place
But I am also living in a country where
Everybody wears religious mask on their face

Bhot sapne dekhe the saath mein
Ab iss rishte ki raakh hai haath mein
Tumhe ab bhool jaunga humesha ke liye
Aur dekhna aage mere kapde honge laakh mein
Tum aoge mujhse fir dosti karne
Par bata du itna waqt nhi hai mere haath mein Ab
bologi ye to sirf baatein hai kuch kar nahi sakta tu Ruko meri jaan aage puri kayanat hai mere saath mein Bewajah khud ko bhot kosa hai mene
Par ab lagta hai main nahi hu tumari aukaat mein
Main kabhi gaali nhi dunga tumhe
Kyuki humne kuch pal bitaye the saath mein
Chain se shayad mar bhi nahi paunga
Kyuki jannat tak sapne dekhe the saath mein Maa
ne sahi kaha tha mujhe
Tera haath hai kisi galat haath mein.
Mujhe maaf karna tumhari zindagi mein aaya
Apni zindagi mein bhuchaal main khud le aaya
Tumne mujhe khilona samjha shayad
Par main apna saara pyaar tum pe le aaya
Accha hua yesab hua mere saath
Tumara asli rang saamne to aaye
Roz roya krti thi mere liye
Roz itna jhoot kaha se laaya?
Main bhi kitna bevakoof hu
Tumhe apna samajh kar mene dusro ko jalaya
Aaj haste honge mujhpe
Itna bachpan kaha se laaya?

Dusro ki yaadon mein khoke neend ki kimat samjh aayi hai Aaj neend lagi hai acchi..... khud ki
kimat samjh aayi hai Ab pyaar sirf khudse krunga
Kyuki logo ko niyat aur sirat aaj samjh aayi hai

Uski hasi bhare baaton ko pyaar samjh liya hai mene Kuch saanpo ko yaar samjh liya hai mene
Log burai kare ya na kare meri ab farak nhi padta hai mujhe Dusre ke vicharo par khud ko badalna
chod diya hai mene

Marital Rape – The Oxymoron

"Woman is the companion of man, gifted with equal mental capacities." – M.K. Gandhi

Women deserve love, respect and trust. Marital rape breaks that trust. However, it is rather disappointing to see that the right to say NO seems to have evaded the Indian women in a marital relationship.

History has been a witness to this fact as seen in the popular age old Phulmani case of Bengal. A 35 year old man raped his 11 year old wife which led to her death in 1889. According to Hindu beliefs, denying sex goes against the tenets of an ideal Hindu wife, irrespective of the age, physical and mental readiness of the spouse for sexual intercourse.

Many would argue that these issues are covered in the Protection of Women from Domestic Violence Act, 2005 and there is no need for a special law. However, we need to remember that the Domestic Violence Act has been deemed as a civil law. So, the accused can get away without a jail term which means the victim is still in danger of subjection to such recurring acts let alone the deprivation of justice to the victim.

Section 375 of the Indian Penal code is the only go to remedy available for all rape cases, whether inside marriage or outside marriage. As per the provisions of this section, a man is said to commit "rape if he -

(a) penetrates his penis, to any extent, into the vagina, mouth, urethra or anus of a woman or makes her to do so with him or any other person; or

(b) inserts, to any extent, any object or a part of the body, not being the penis, into the vagina, the urethra or anus of a woman or makes her to do so with him or any other person; or

(c) manipulates any part of the body of a woman so as to cause penetration into the vagina, urethra, anus or any part of body of such woman or makes her to do so with him or any other person; or

(d) applies his mouth to the vagina, anus, urethra of a woman or makes her to do so with him or any other person, under the circumstances falling under any of the following seven descriptions:

First. Against her will.

Secondly. Without her consent.

Thirdly. With her consent, when her consent has been obtained by putting her or any person in whom she is interested, in fear of death or of hurt.

Fourthly. With her consent, when the man knows that he is not her husband and that her consent is given because she believes that he is another man to whom she is or believes herself to be lawfully married.

Fifthly. With her consent when, at the time of giving such consent, by reason of unsoundness of mind or intoxication or the administration by him personally or through another of any stupefying or unwholesome substance, she is unable to understand the nature and consequences of that to which she gives consent.

Sixthly. With or without her consent, when she is under eighteen years of age.

Seventhly. When she is unable to communicate consent.

Explanation 1. For the purposes of this section, "vagina" shall also include labia majora.

Explanation 2. Consent means an unequivocal voluntary agreement when the woman by words, gestures or any form of verbal or non-verbal communication, communicates willingness to participate in the specific sexual act:

Provided that a woman who does not physically resist to the act of penetration shall not by the reason only of that fact, be regarded as consenting to the sexual activity.

Exception 1: A medical procedure or intervention shall not constitute rape.

Exception 2: Sexual intercourse or sexual acts by a man with his own wife, the wife not being under fifteen years of age, is not rape.

The letter and spirit of Section 375 does not, with complete certainty, recognise or acknowledge rape in a marital relationship. If unmarried women gets raped, then it is an offence but not with married women being raped by her own spouse. Exception 2 Of Section 375 IPC stands in violation of Articles 14, 19 and 21 of the Constitution of India dealing with the Right to Equality, Freedom of Speech and Expression and Protection of Life and Personal Liberty, respectively.

Justice Pardiwala, in the landmark judgement of Nimesh Bhai, Bharat Bhai Desai Vs. State of Gujarat rightly observed, "A law that does not give married and unmarried women equal protection creates conditions that lead to the marital rape. It allows the men and women to believe that wife rape is acceptable."

The law governing rape has to change to address the incidences of marital rapes in our country. Contenders against criminalisation of marital rape cite misuse of law, illiteracy, poverty, lack of financial empowerment and closed mindset as key challenges. In this respect, the way forward is - to spread intense awareness on the enormity of the problem and the seriousness of the draconian effects it is bound to have on the society at large. It is high time we started arranging more consultations and getting more data to create a road map for criminalising this cankerous social evil.

परचम

लब पे लहजों को रोन्थ दो मेरे
या ज़ेहन को जंजीरों से जकड़ दो तुम
उस ध्वस्त राख की राहों में
फिर से दीप जलादो तुम

अब जो परचम बिखरा तो, परवाज़ ना कर पाओगे
इस हौसले के अलम को फिर से, जुनून की मिट्टी में लहरादो तुम।

समझ पल भर के लिए ही सही, शमशीर से कई दर्जा आला है
उस रुख बदलती कश्ती का, मल्लाह ही मतवाला है

दिया अब भी मद्धम है, तू दीद दौड़ा दे दर्पण में
दरमिया तेरे व सिकंदर के कुछ भी नहीं, भले ही दर्शन करले तू मदफन के।

नैन को करके चौरंगा तूने, ज़ेहन को ज़खिरा कर डाला
कूच करना था जिस राह में तुझको, उसी का रुख तूने बदल डाला

गर गिर भी गया तो क्या हुवा, तेरे मत्थे मोहर न मारी जाएगी
जी भर के फिर परवाज़ तू करना, तुझ से ऊंचाई की गुंजाइश न
मांगी जाएगी

हां, हरगिज़ हौसला पस्त हूवा है
मगर पस्तावा नहीं हैं परवाजों का

तू परबत परबत घूम रे मन मौजा
सतावे काहे तुझे मोह माया का दूजा
कोढ़ कोढ़ के चट्टानों के करवट भी बदल देवे
सिलने पर आवे तो कंकड़ को भी बुन देवे
प्यादे को कभी परवान चढ़ते देखा है तुमने
मैं ही हूं जो सतरंज का अंत भी बदल देवे.

Alumni Corner

"I miss the vibe of college, the freedom that I had here, the exploring I could do here" - Anjali Kamath

An Alumni of the college is not just a student who has graduated from the institution but an alumna represents the values, the ethics and skills that one college imparts to their students. Hence, to keep in touch with our alumni and more importantly to give our current students an idea of the future awaiting them, DGMC called Ms. Anjali Kamath as guest of honor for the Annual day function 2022. Ms. Kamath has finished her post Graduation in Advertising and Communication from Deviprasad Goenka Management College of Media Studies in the year 2015-2017)

She is currently a brand strategist and communication specialist. Her forte is understanding the consumer in-depth through research, developing communication for them and identifying the right platforms to deploy the communication. Therefore, she takes on the role of being customer's advocate on the brand/agency side. She believes that it's the impact on the end consumer that makes all the difference and hence digital first in her approach. In the last five years, she kick started her career with an internship at Grey worldwide, she then worked with agencies like The Glitch, Leo Burnett and is currently posted on the business side with Kotak Mahindra Bank as Chief Manager Marketing. She has worked on some marquee brands such as Spotify, HDFC Life, LinkedIn and across brands within the Unilever, GSK & P&G network over the length of her career.

When asked about her experience of college and how it helped in her career, she responded that "Here at DGMC we learn everything right! From advertising to marketing to videography... like all those skills helped me somewhere. For instance, in my first job there were a lot of things I was able to do just because of the multiplicity of training DGMC allowed me."
