"Film Screening"

The IQAC & the Cine Verse Club of RSET's Deviprasad Goenka Management College of Media Studies is organising a "Film Screening" of the film "3-Iron (2004, dir. Kim Ki-duk)" on 4th Sept 2026 from 10am onwards in classroom 782.

About the Movie

3-Iron (2004, dir. Kim Ki-duk) is celebrated as a landmark of minimalist world cinema. Its two leads exchange almost no dialogue throughout the film, relying instead on gesture, silence, and visual poetry to convey intimacy and alienation. It cemented Kim Ki-duk's reputation as one of Korea's most distinctive auteurs, blending stark realism with dreamlike, almost spiritual imagery. Widely studied for its restraint and formal daring, it is often cited as proof that cinema can transcend language through pure visual storytelling.
